LONDON MAYOR FOG HOLDS UP ADAMOWSKI TO ITALY SENDS RIVALS HOBSON KAISER WARSHIP OUT SYMPHONY HEARST THANKS

After twenty-two years of continuous service as Violinist in the Boston Symphony Orchestra, Theodore Adamowski, the virtuoso and conductor, has resigned the position.

Mr. Adamowski will continue to conduct the "Pops" for one-third of the present season, as was arranged. Next season he expects that the activity of the Adamowski family will be greater than ever. It has been

Mr. Hearst is chairman. It is to be devoted to the relief of the sufferers from the recent eruption of Vesuvius. Sixty thousand dollars were also sent on the same day to the Duke of Aosta, and similar contributions are to be forwarded later.
